

- Exhibiting Artist Information:

1. Name and contact details of the artist

NAME: Marcia Nongamthini Majavu

CONTACT DETAILS: 061 053 7031

2. Picture of the artist

3. Biography of the artist

Marica Nomgamthini Majavu underwent training on illustration and administration She has been working with local and overseas institutions and was awarded a certificate by Ithuba writing project. Currently she is involved in Weareble Creative centre, a non-profit social cohesion organisation that uses creative arts as a vehicle to integrate people with disability and able people in communities. In addition to producing art, Marica Nongamthini Majavu is involved in a development programme at Mofolo Art Centre where she shares her ceramic skills with youth.

4. Artwork(s) Images

Title: Matswedintsweke 1

Dimension: 3D

Description: A sculpture handcrafted for display and functional piece, a candleholder

Title: Matswedintsweke 2

Dimension: 3D

Description: It's a sculpture handcrafted for display and functional piece as a succulents flower Vase. The sculpture allows one to transplant different succulents plants and it creates the flower arrangement effect.

- Inclusion of the following statement (which needs to be visible) on the exhibition platform: "Any use of exhibited artwork's images, not limited to downloading and / or reproduction is prohibited; and will be liable to any recourse by the owner of the artwork"

This is according to Sub-section 8.2.2 of the Joburg Online exhibition guidelines which states that the COJ will take reasonable steps to protect copyright of exhibited artworks by including the following statement in all mediums used for exhibition:

- Inclusion of the Joburg Online exhibition Guidelines document. I suggest (if possible) that when a person enters the website, it would take him to agreeing that he/she has read the guidelines, more especially the part that indemnifies the City.