

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

THE JOBURG FILM OFFICE in association with WORK IT Solutions presents:

THE WORKSHOP / TAKE 1

You have ONE minute to tell a story. How do you tell it?

The art of filmmaking goes beyond the telling of the story. From funding your concept, to producing and distributing it, the story depends on the crew's ability to support the concept from both a creative and business standpoint.

We are offering you - student, apprentice, or simply passionate lover of film - the opportunity to work under seasoned professionals on YOUR story.

Participants will attend themed workshops designed to comprehensively cover the process of taking a concept to the screen.

Send us your idea (one-page maximum) and you could be one of the 15 chosen to pitch and produce your own concept. Include a brief profile and your contact details and send to joburgfilm@gmail.com by 9 June 2017.

Selected participants will receive information on venue and dates in due course!
