FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: 30 October 2025

CITY OF JOHANNESBURG COUNCIL APPOINTS DR. FLOYD WARREN BRINK AS A CITY MANAGER

The City of Joburg Council is delighted to announce the appointment of Dr. Floyd Warren Brink as the new City Manager. This strategic move is a testament to the City's commitment to robust leadership and effective governance as it continues to advance its developmental agenda, focusing on inclusivity, sustainability, and resilience.

Dr. Brink joins the City with over twenty-two (22) years of extensive work experience, including sixteen (16) years in senior management roles. His diverse professional background encompasses financial management, engineering, and business administration, positioning him as an exceptional leader ready to guide Johannesburg towards sustainable growth and service excellence.

Dr. Brink holds a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from MANCOSA and a Bachelor of Commerce (B.Com) in Financial Management from the University of the Free State. Additionally, he has earned a National Diploma in Engineering and, most recently, completed a PhD qualification, underscoring his unwavering commitment to academic and professional excellence.

"Dr. Brink's extensive expertise and proven track record of leadership in various sectors make him an invaluable asset to our City," said Councillor Nkosephayo Zungu, the MMC of Corporate and Shared Services in the City of Johannesburg Council. "We believe his strategic vision and commitment to service delivery will significantly contribute to realising our City's vision of a vibrant, resilient, and inclusive metropolis."

In his new role, Dr. Brink is expected to navigate the complexities of urban governance, optimise service delivery, and foster economic development, all while ensuring that the needs of the Johannesburg community are met. His leadership is seen as pivotal in addressing the challenges that lie ahead and enhancing the quality of life for all residents.

The City of Joburg extends a warm welcome to Dr. Brink as he takes on the responsibilities of a City Manager and looks forward to collaborating with him to deliver on the City's strategic priorities.
