Chief Whip of Johannesburg Council to hand over title deeds in Ward 121

The Chief Whip of Council in the City of Johannesburg, Councillor Khazamula Chauke, together with the Executive Mayor, Councillor Dada Morero and Member of the Mayoral Committee (MMC) for Human Settlement, Councillor Mlungisi Mabaso, will handover title deeds in Ward 121 on Wednesday, the 25th of March 2026.

This historic event marks a significant milestone for many families in the area, as it guarantees dignity and security of tenure.

Councillor Chauke expressed his enthusiasm for the occasion, “We are delighted to form part of this life-changing moment, as we acknowledge the importance that homeownership and the elimination of homelessness have in shaping and improving the lives of our residents. As a Ward Councillor, I am truly thrilled for the community.”

Members of the media are invited to attend and cover this important event.

Details of the event are as follows:

Date: Wednesday, 25 March 2026

Time: 09:00

Venue: Lawley Primary School, Lawley, South of Johannesburg
