City Power targets five suspected hijacked buildings in Inner City revenue collection drive

22 September 2026

EMBARGOED UNTIL 09H30 ON WEDNESDAY, 23 SEPTEMBER 2026

City Power will continue its intensive revenue collection drive tomorrow, Wednesday, 23 September 2026, with a targeted operation against five suspected hijacked buildings in the Johannesburg Inner City.

The operation will target properties with outstanding electricity accounts, with the five buildings collectively owing approximately R5 million. City Power will disconnect the properties for non-payment as part of its ongoing efforts to improve revenue collection and address long-standing debt.

City Power's revenue collection operations are aimed at ensuring that customers settle their outstanding accounts, enabling the entity to recover the revenue required to support electricity infrastructure investment, maintenance and the continued provision of reliable electricity services.

Details are as follows:

Date: Wednesday, 23 September 2026

Time: 09h00

Venue: City Power Head Office, 40 Heronmere Road, Reuven, Booysen

To RSVP, please kindly contact Ndivhuwo Mulamu on 083 467 6290 and Kholofelo Mogotlane on 065 560 3239.
