EXECUTIVE MAYOR COUNCILLOR DADA MORERO TO HOST PUBLIC LECTURE ON ETHICAL LEADERSHIP AND GOVERNANCE

As part of the Joburg Our First Love – A Re Buwe campaign, the Executive Mayor of the City of Johannesburg, Councillor Dada Morero, will host a public lecture on Sunday, 20 September 2026, bringing together distinguished women leaders from government, business, academia and public institutions for a conversation on ethical leadership, accountability and the future of governance.

The lecture aims to foster meaningful dialogue between the City and the residents it serves, providing a platform for honest engagement on how leadership rooted in integrity, transparency and accountability can strengthen public trust and help shape Johannesburg's future.

An acclaimed radio and television broadcaster will moderate the discussion, featuring an esteemed panel of women leaders whose work continues to influence South Africa's governance and development landscape.
