Rea Vaya BRT offers services for the Scorpion Kings Musical Festival at the FNB Stadium

The City of Joburg's Rea Vaya BRT will operate normal and event services to transport music festival goers to the FNB Stadium for the Scorpion Kings Live event on Saturday, the 19th of September 2026. Event services will operate to and from the FNB stadium (before and after the festival) from the Joburg CBD, Soweto, Alexandra and Sandton.

Event bus services from Soweto, Thokoza Park Rea Vaya Station and Indilingilizi [Dobsonville] public transport interchange will operate at 15 minutes frequency to the Rea Vaya Soccer City station [FNB stadium] from 11:00 am to 20:00 pm before the start of the music festival.

From Joburg CBD to FNB Stadium

Event buses will operate from Rea Vaya stations Ellis Park East (located close to Ellis Park Arena) and Ellis Park North (close to Johannesburg stadium) from 12:00 to 20:00.

From Sandton and Alexandra to the FNB Stadium

Trunk buses (T4) will operate at 15 minutes frequency from Sandton and Alexandra to the Joburg CBD to connect event service buses at the Library Gardens West Rea Vaya station to the FNB Stadium. Festival goers can also connect a special event bus at the Brenthurst Rea Vaya station (opposite Brenthurst Clinic in Hillbrow) to FNB stadium from 12:00.

A normal Trunk route (T3) buses from Library Gardens East through Braamfontein, Parktown, Milpark, Auckland Park (Campus Square), Helen Joseph, Industria West, New Canda and Noordgesig will operate at 15 minutes frequency to Thokoza Park until 19:00. Music goers will use the T3 and connect event service buses at the Orlando Stadium Rea Vaya station to FNB stadium.

Rea Vaya feeder (F6, F7, F8, F11 & 12) and complimentary buses (C4, C5 & C6) will operate a normal weekend schedule and will not provide event services after the festival.

From FNB Stadium to Soweto, Joburg CBD, Alexandra and Sandton: After the festival

Event service buses will depart from FNB stadium to Thokoza Park, Indilingilizi (Dobsonville), Joburg CBD, Sandton and Alexandra at 23:30.

The last bus from FNB Stadium to Thokoza Park and Indilingilizi will depart FNB Stadium at 01:30.

The Last event buses from Joburg CBD to Alexandra and Sandton will leave Rea Vaya Library Gardens East station at 02:00, Sunday morning.

Festival goers will use account-based ticketing cards available at all Rea Vaya stations for R30.00 to travel to the event. You are encouraged to load travel cards with funds for a return trip. The card can also be used for future events.

Further information on how to travel to the music festival at the FNB stadium will be given through Rea Vaya social media platforms.
